Flip or Flop

Time
Counting down from 60

Flips

A counter that totals the amount of clicks the user has attempted to complete the quiz

I would like to have some eye catching images on both the front and back of the cards

The background will be plain, in order for the card images and the animations to really stand out to the user.

Restart

A restart button for the user to begin the game again

Restart

The font used would need to be eye catching. I would like it to be in line with the images I use on the cards.

This could change with different versions of the game going forward. For example a Christmas theme or Sports.
